

You are invited to attend the

3rd Annual TCLP Virtual Alumni Training Conference

Join the conversation! Meet your friends and colleagues in China, Egypt, and the United States for a two-day virtual conference on developing and delivering trainings for your students and peers. Each day will include presentations and scheduled time for Q&A.

Featuring Presentations by TCLP Alumni!

Wednesday, February 24, 2016: Peer/Teacher Training

TCLP alumni Chen Jinyun and Mohamed Mehanny (2013-2014) will discuss how they have used their experiences from their time in the United States to develop and deliver trainings to their colleagues in China and Egypt.

Thursday, February 25, 2016: Student Training

TCLP alumni Mohamed Hassan and Fu Ailing (2011-2012) will discuss how they have used their TCLP experiences to train their students after returning to China and Egypt.

Chen Jinyun

Chen Jinyun is from Nanjing, Jiangsu, China and received her Bachelor's degree in English Literature at Xiaogan University and a Master's degree in English Literature from Southwest University of Science and Technology. She currently teaches EAL, coaches drama club and undertake the responsibility of head-teacher in Sino-US program in Nanjing Foreign Language School Xianlin Campus. She also leads the guidance office in the international department in the school.

Mohamed Mehanny

Mohamed Mehanny is from Minia, Egypt. And holds a Bachelor Degree of Arts and Education in English from Minia University. He completed an online training course for at University of Oregon. He has been teaching English at Minia Experimental Language School since 2004 and has finished his Professional Certificate English Language Teaching(PCLET). He is a current participant in the Shaping the Ways We Teach English Webinars and conducts professional workshops for all students and teachers.

Mohamed Hassan

Mohamed Hassan is from Gena, Egypt, and holds a Bachelor Degree in Arts and Education from the South Valley University in Gena. He received his vocational diploma in teaching technology in 1999. He taught English at Qus Prep School for Girls starting in 2005 and currently teaches English at the International German School, Luxor and Arabic to non-native speakers in a Worldwide Academy in Luxor. After returning back from the United States, he was selected to be the head of English division at his school.

Fu Ailing

Fu Ailing is from Shandong, China and holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from Shandong Teachers University where she also began studying in 2010 for a Master of Arts Degree in Teaching Chinese to Foreigners as a Second Language. There, she gained both theoretical knowledge and practice in teaching Chinese to foreigners. For more than 10 years, she has been teaching English to various students, acquiring many rich teaching experiences.

February 24 and February 25, 2016 at 3:00pm in Egypt, 9:00pm in China, and 8:00am (EST) in the U.S.

Each day, the event will last for one hour and will include speaker presentations and group discussion.

To attend the live conference, follow the link below:

<https://zoom.us/j/2028337522>

Sessions will be recorded.