

You are invited to attend the

2nd Annual TCLP Virtual Alumni Training Conference

Join the conversation! Meet your friends and colleagues in China, Egypt and the United States for a two-day virtual conference about building international sister school relationships.

Featuring Presentations and Group Discussions with TCLP staff and alumni!

Wednesday, February 4, 2015: Collaborating with U.S. Schools on Sister-School Projects

Day One: TCLP staff will discuss how to design and conduct small scale, easy-to-implement projects that will spearhead the establishment of sister-school relationships. Guest alumni speakers will also share how they keep in touch with their U.S. host schools through in-person and virtual exchange projects.

Thursday, February 5, 2015: Organizing International Student Exchanges

Day Two: TCLP Alumnus Emil Marcos, and Alumni co-presenters Li Qiong and Bill Dolezal will discuss how to establish international student exchanges. The presenters will provide tips on financing student exchanges and will elaborate on the projects that their students conducted while visiting the host schools in Egypt, China and the United States.

Li Qiong

Ms. Qiong is from Yichang, China, where she graduated from Three Gorges University with a major in English Teaching and later studied English Literature at Wuhan University. Ms. Qiong has been teaching at No. 6 Middle School of Yichang for over 10 years. After participating in TCLP in 2011, Ms. Qiong has remained active in pursuing opportunities for exchange and cross cultural collaboration for her students.

Bill Dolezal

Mr. Dolezal is the principal of Sonoran Trails Middle School in Cave Creek, Arizona, the first public school in Arizona to offer World Language as core classes for all students. Mr. Dolezal served as the administrator for two TCLP Chinese teachers in 2011 and 2012, and has worked with Ms. Qiong to facilitate student exchanges between Sonoran Trails Middle Schools and No. 6 Middle School of Yichang.

Emil Marcos

Mr. Marcos is from Cairo, Egypt. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Teaching English as a Foreign Language, as well as an International Diploma for Teachers from Cambridge University. Since 1990 Mr. Marcos has taught at the Al-Salam Private Language School where he is also the founder and manager of an international department. He participated in TCLP in 2008 and was hosted by the Center for Global Studies in Norwalk, CT.

February 4 and February 5, 2015 at 3:00pm in Egypt, 9:00pm in China and 8:00am (EST) in the U.S.

Each day, the event will last for one hour and will include speaker presentations and group discussion.

Sessions will be recorded.

To attend the live conference, follow the link below:

<https://zoom.us/j/2028337522>