

Clothes review

Objectives:

By the end of the class, students will be able to:

- 1- recognize and pronounce the different clothes items properly.
- 2- Speak using the clothes words to express what they are wearing and what others are wearing.

Presentation:

- Listening to the Arabic clothing song to memorize the clothing vocabulary that they studied before.
- Making a discussion with students about the clothes they can still remember and reminding them of what they forgot.
- Letting students do pairwork to ask each other about what they are wearing and including colors with the answers to revise colours as well.
- Letting students draw unexpected people with different colours and everyone will be required to describe what his partner draws.
- Telling students in Arabic description of three people with specific clothing and colors and they are required to draw them and after that I will check how many of them did well and correct any mistakes.

The used activities

- 1- Clothes drawing activity when students are required to draw according to their comprehension from what they listen.
- 2- Person guessing game in which I describe in Arabic someone's clothing and the first student to say the name is the winner.

Assessment:

Students are required to say different five sentences with clothes and colors and write them.
